Section 1

1.1 Definition of Wellbeing

As outlined in the 'Junior Cycle Wellbeing Guidelines 2021', the following definition of wellbeing applies:

Wellbeing is present when students realise their abilities, take care of their physical wellbeing, can cope with the normal stresses of life, and have a sense of purpose and belonging to a wider community.

Scoil Chonglais' Wellbeing plan has been prepared and developed in conjunction with the Framework for Junior Cycle 2015 which states that:

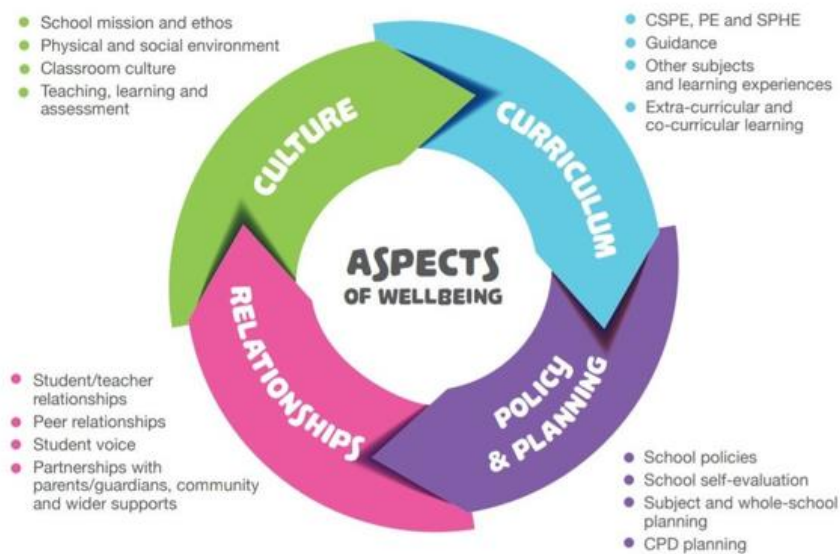

Wellbeing crosses the three years of junior cycle and builds on substantial work already taking place in schools in support of students' wellbeing. This area of learning makes the school's culture and ethos and commitment to wellbeing visible to students. It provides learning opportunities to enhance the physical, mental, emotional and social wellbeing of students. It supports students in developing important life skills and in building a strong sense of connectedness to their school and to their community.

Our Wellbeing programme aims to make the school's culture and ethos and commitment to wellbeing visible to students. It provides learning opportunities to enhance the physical, mental, emotional and social wellbeing of students. It supports students in developing important life skills and in building a strong sense of connectedness to their school and to their community. Scoil Chonglais aims to develop student agency about their wellbeing and their capacity to talk about it. Our programme aims to encourage young people to take responsibility for their wellbeing and the wellbeing of others and to ensure that wellbeing is supported through learning and teaching that helps students feel confident, connected and actively engaged in their learning.

We have embraced a whole school approach and aligned the planning for our Wellbeing programme with our school ethos, policies and practice and SSE. We aim to provide opportunities for the inclusion of the six indicators of wellbeing in all aspects of school life, so that the wellbeing experience is tangible for all students and staff. Our SSE includes a focus on Wellbeing and Ethos.

Reporting on students' learning in Wellbeing aims to provide a picture of what students have learned about Wellbeing and the skills they have developed to support their Wellbeing. It is expected that schools will report on student learning about Wellbeing as part of ongoing assessment and reporting throughout Junior Cycle. Wellbeing will be reported on through the JCPA for the first time in 2020. Wellbeing will show in a separate area of the JCPA. It is in this area that schools will report on student achievement in CSPE, SPHE and PE. This will be facilitated by the use of the descriptors which have already been developed and reflect the appropriate language of learning. The Wellbeing area of the JCPA will also include a free text space where schools can report on achievement in Wellbeing in other areas apart from PE, SPHE and CSPE.
